Profile

As a California State Bar Certified Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law, Elise's practice focuses almost exclusively on estate planning, probate, trust administration, and conservatorships. In addition to her direct client work, Elise serves as court-appointed counsel for conservatees in Placer County Superior Court and Sacramento County Superior Court.

Elise provides affordable high quality estate planning services to her clients, including Powers of Attorney, Health Care Directives, Trusts, and Wills. Elise takes time with each client to ensure that, at the end of the estate planning process, her clients understand what they have, why they have it, and how it works. Elise knows that each client's unique situation and needs require attention and care in the estate planning process, and she brings her skills as a mediator and coach to her client work so that her clients know they have a compassionate ear and a strong advocate.

In addition to her estate planning work, Elise represents trustees, executors, and personal representatives in their estate administration work. She also represents individuals and organizations as beneficiaries of trusts and estates.

A strong believer in the power of collaboration and community, Elise created the South Placer Estate Planning Council (SPEPC) in 2007. The SPEPC is a multi-disciplinary professional organization that continues to promote continuing education and collegiality for all professional advisors engaged in the area of estate planning.

Elise lives in Rocklin, California, with her spouse David, their two amazing daughters Elizabeth and Jaqueline, and their rambunctious dogs Ruby and Maui. When she is not spending time with her family or working, Elise enjoys making music. A trained vocalist, Elise has been in several bands, and has performed at the legendary Whisky A Go Go in Hollywood. She is also an accomplished songwriter and solo performer.
